BRYAN VEILS A THREAT TO BOLT

In Refusing Chair He Says He Would Be Free to Make Fight Before Voters

MAY AID PLANK OF BOB'S

Commoner's Support Is Asked for LaFollette Monetary Scheme in Democrat Platform

BALTIMORE, June 26.—An attempt by the conservative forces now in control of the democratic national committee to swing William J. Bryan into line by making him chairman of the resolutions committee, which is drafting a platform, failed today. Not only did Bryan refuse, but he made it plain in refusing that he feared the committee had been packed against him.

Bryan arrived at the committee room unannounced, passing enroute a committee composed of Senators Culberson of Texas, Rayner of Maryland and O'Gorman of New York, who had been sent to ask him to assume the chairmanship and stand before the country as responsible for the party declaration.

Turns Down Proposition

While waiting for the three senators to return the proposition of the majority was put up to Bryan, and he flatly refused it.

"There is a decided possibility that this committee may not be a unit in its recommendations to this convention," he said. "I myself desire to reserve freedom of action; it is a certainty that there will be suggestions made to this convention, which I cannot assent to."

"If defeated here I can reserve the right to carry that fight both on to the floor of the convention and before the voters of the United States."

The leaders were plainly disconcerted because of the action of Bryan. This disconcert became chagrin when Bryan told his lieutenant, Senator Luke Lea of Tennessee that he had refused the honor because he personally "intended to play national, not ward politics."

Kern Elected

Former Congressman Fithian of Illinois then suggested that Senator Kern, the Indiana representative on the committee, be elected. Kern at first was going to refuse also, but finally consented to serve and was unanimously chosen with T. J. Walsh of Colorado as secretary.

The committee immediately went into executive session to prepare the platform.

As soon as the doors were closed, Bryan was recognized to open the general debate preliminary to presentation and discussion of the hundreds of platform planks. He pleaded with the committee to prepare a strong progressive platform, concise, brief, but emphatic and clear in its delineation of democratic principles. He spoke for fifteen minutes also asking for harmony, but with a veiled threat of a minority report if the progressives are gagged by conservatives.

Asked to Aid Bob

E. L. Garrison of Connecticut sent for Bryan as soon as he got through, presented to him the platform prepared by Senator LaFollette which was turned down by the Chicago republican convention. Garrison asked Bryan to lend his influence to have the best planks of this platform incorporated in the democratic declaration, especially the monetary scheme. This latter is the plank written by Prof. John R. Commons of the University of Wisconsin.

Are Bill and Bob Up To Something?

"If defeated here (in the resolutions committee) I can reserve the right to carry the fight both on to the floor of the convention and BEFORE THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES."—W. J. Bryan to Democratic National Convention.

This is a plain threat to bolt, in case a reactionary candidate is nominated upon a reactionary platform.

That Mr. Bryan and Senator LaFollette are in touch during this convention appears from the fact that LaFollette's platform is in the hands of the Bryan men who are working on the democratic platform, and that Garrison of the Madison State Journal, in consultation with them on the financial plank.

Writing to the Milwaukee Journal Henry C. Campbell says Chairman Davies of the Wisconsin delegation has conformed to a request to save convention seats for LaFollette. "He may sit as a delegate, if he wishes," Mr. Davies is reported as saying.

It cannot be denied that the question of political interest today is whether, should Mr. Bryan and his platform be scouted, will go with LaFollette into a new party that would swallow the Roosevelt party and become a real factor in the 1912 election.

LION ATTACKS MAN IN WINONA

Trainer in Carnival Show May Have Been Fatally Injured by the Animal

A Nubian lioness this morning attacked Howard Quimm, assistant trainer, at the Patterson shows holding a carnival for the baseball team in Winona, and inflicted wounds that were at first thought to be fatal. Mr. Quimm is now at a hospital, where physicians say he will recover if infection is avoided.

Quimm was engaged in putting the lions through their "stunts" when people around the grounds were attracted by the angry roar of the lioness. The crowd rushed to the scene and beheld the beast with its fore paws planted upon the prostrate trainer, its teeth buried in his side. It had also inflicted an ugly wound in the shoulder. It was tearing at the flesh of its victim and growling fiercely.

Among those attracted by the uproar was Peter Callahan, a plumber of this city in the employ of Baker and Niebuhr, who was visiting in Winona.

Mr. Callahan says a keeper rushed into the enclosure and placing a large pistol at the lioness' temple, fired. The animal hurled him away with a blow that might have been fatal had it caught him squarely. Then Mr. Patterson, owner of the shows, leaped in and picked up the weapon, firing three more shots into the lioness at close range. The beast finally succumbed to its wounds and slowly relinquished its greedy grip on Quimm.

The lioness was valued at $900.

MISSING NORWEGIAN BEING SOUGHT HERE

Trace of Conrad Emil Tronerud, Sr., formerly of Sarpsborg, Norway, is being sought in this city by District Attorney James Thompson today as the result of a letter from Norwegian Consul Hobe at St. Paul. According to the letter from the consul it is necessary to locate Tronerud in order that a large estate in Norway may be settled up. The consul encloses a letter from a son of the missing man saying that he came to America in 1892 and the last heard from him was a letter saying that he was in business in Minneapolis. He says that they received a report from a friend later that he had died in La Crosse sometime between 1902 and 1903. A careful search of the records in the court house fails to reveal any clue to the death of such a man. His son writes that he is 63 years of age and is of "middle height." The only possible clue to his having been in this vicinity was reported to Mr. Thompson that a man of his name had spent a year or two working on a farm near Bangor, but that he had disappeared since then.

LEAVE CHIHUAHUA.

EL PASO, Texas, June 26.—Three hundred refugees from Chihuahua, the rebel army bank reserve, and a number of cavalry horses for the Mexican Central rail, arrived on the Chihuahua today's train from Chihuahua. Today's train from Chihuahua is expected to bring thirty more refugees.

TEN DAYS OF DROUTH

Matt McInerney was sentenced to ten days in the county jail by County Judge John Brindley this morning. He pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness.

MONEY TRUST AND TARIFF BIG ISSUES

Fight Over Platform Will Center Around Three Main Planks in the Convention

RACE PLANK IS DRASTIC

Newlands of Nevada Would Insert Declaration for Disfranchising the Negro Voters

BALTIMORE, Md., June 26.—Immediately after the election of Kern to the chair of the resolutions committee this morning the committee began to prepare the platform. It was generally accepted that they would not be able to report to the convention before tomorrow morning although a determined effort was being made by the majority to have the report made today so that the way would be clear for nominations tomorrow.

Writing to the Milwaukee Journal Henry C. Campbell says Chairman Davies of the Wisconsin delegation has conformed to a request to save convention seats for LaFollette. "He may sit as a delegate, if he wishes," Mr. Davies is reported as saying.

It cannot be denied that the question of political interest today is whether, should Mr. Bryan and his platform be scouted, will go with LaFollette into a new party that would swallow the Roosevelt party and become a real factor in the 1912 election.

Fight on Three Planks

Members of the committee admitted that the big fight was to be on the money, trust and tariff planks.

Bryan, it was admitted would take an advanced stand on these subjects and if his wishes were not carried out would make a fight on the floor which might jar the conservative control from its foundations.

Bryan, it is known, favors making the proposition that guilt is personal paramount in the declaration and pledging the party to legislation that will make the punishment for persons who engage in criminal combinations in restraint of trade prison sentences in place of fines and making jail sentences absolutely mandatory.

Some of the committee favor having the tariff plank return to the days of Grover Cleveland and pledging the party to a tariff for revenue only. Others believed that it should declare for high tariff on luxuries and low tariff on necessities of life. This feeling was general among the delegates, and it was accepted that the plank would be framed with this object in view.

A delegation from the reform club of New York presented a plank which seemed to meet somewhat general approval and part of which, at least, would be incorporated in the document. This suggestion read in part as follows:

"We held that the chief issue before the people at the present time is the overthrow of the combination between the tariff protected trusts and the government of the United States.

"We declare that the only proper purpose of taxation is to provide revenue for government. We promise a restoration of the government of the United States to this just principle of taxation."

Senator Newlands of Nevada, presented an entire platform he had drawn.

He went strongly into the race question, wanting a declaration that would say:

"Experience has demonstrated that the granting of the franchise to the blacks under the belief that it was necessary for their protection was a mistake and that it had led, and can lead, to nothing but their injury.

"Entertaining nothing but the most humane and helpful purposes regarding the blacks in our midst, and the most friendly disposition to races differing in color and complexion, we declare our purpose to maintain this as a white man's country, and to that end we favor a constitutional amendment confining the privilege of voting to the white race and legislation prohibiting the immigration to this country of all people other than those of the white race, except for such temporary purposes of education, travel, or commerce as comity between friendly nations may require."

After a brief discussion of the platform suggestions the resolutions committee, recessed until 2 p. m., when a sub-committee will be named to draft the platform and then report to the full committee.

Senator Kern will be the chairman of the sub-committee and it is expected that Bryan, Rayner and O'Gorman will be among the other members.

The resolutions committee directed that its sessions should be opened to the representatives of the accredited press associations. This action followed a demand of a number of the members for full publicity.

Senator Kern, chairman of the full committee, then appointed Senator Culberson of Texas, as vice chairman of the sub-committee of eleven members to hear interested persons who desire to appear before the committee. The other members of the sub-committee were William J. Bryan, Senator O'Gorman of New York; Rayner of Maryland; Former Gov. Dockery of Missouri; D. J. Walsh of Massachusetts; Senator Pomeroy of Ohio; Senator Martin of Virginia; Delegate Buford of Oregon; Representative Broussard of Louisiana; and Former Representative George W. Fithian of Illinois.

Samuel Gompers was the first person heard. Three minutes were allowed each person before the committee, about 75 awaiting hearings.

Old Man Jailed for Beating Former Wife

Carl Keim, who won a name for himself in the annals of the La Crosse county court records by being divorced by his sixty-two years old wife, a year ago, again marched upon the stage of court life this morning and was sentenced to three months in the county jail for beating Matilda Keim, his former wife.

Keim, after living with the choice of his younger days for over forty years during which time they became the parents of a family of nine, was sued for divorce on the charge of cruel and inhuman treatment. The divorce was granted and the aged couple parted to end their lives in single blessedness.

Sunday their paths, after running parallel for several months, finally crossed, during which contact Mrs. Keim received several injuries of a minor nature from her former life mate. Upon her complaint, he was arraigned in court this morning and after careful meditation, decided to plead guilty. Despite his request for leniency on the grounds that he was intoxicated, Judge John Brindley reprimanded him and imposed a sentence of three months.

ELECTORS WILL NOT NAME TAFT

Washington Lawyers Say Progressives on Ticket Are Above All Authority as to Votes

CHICAGO, June 26.—That presidential electors on the republican ticket are not obliged to vote for Mr. Taft, and that many of them will not do so, and that as a consequence the best Mr. Taft can expect is what he can get out of an election in congress, is the "dope" from the national capital today.

Washington's best constitutional lawyers agree that the presidential elector is the one officer of the United States who is in no wise amenable to any law. He is superior to the courts, to congress, and to the president. He cannot be prosecuted for contempt or for corruption. He cannot be enjoined to do his duty or change his vote. He is supreme and no one can question his decision. The national committee can ask the resignation of progressive electors, but cannot compel it.

That the electors is a number of states, including Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, North Dakota, New Jersey, Kansas, and Nebraska, are progressives and will not vote for Mr. Taft, is the claim confidentially made.

The thirteen Wisconsin electors are going to be doubly hard for Mr. Taft to get because of a new law that provides for a separate ballot for the presidential tickets.

The conclusion is drawn that for the first time in the history the presidential electors will abandon their perfunctory character and take an important part in the election of a president.

ENGINEERS START ON WATER PLANT

O. F. Gayton and A. A. Ort, engineers in the employ of Alvord & Burdick, the Chicago firm that has been engaged to install the new water system, arrived in La Crosse this morning and immediately began the preliminary work of the construction of the plant. Escorted by Alderman P. W. Mahoney, secretary of the special water committee, the engineers made a trip of inspection to the field of their summer's labors. They have already hired a large number of men and the work of determining where the big reservoir on Granddall bluff will be built, was begun. Several excavations were made to determine the quality of the strata on the bluff. The engineers will remain in the city until the work is completed. They have engaged rooms at the Y. M. C. A. building.

$10 FOR WHIPPING

NEW YORK, June 26.—Mrs. Sophie Toker, 35, a widow of Camden, N. J., was arrested today charged with horsewhipping Henry Armstrong, a Camden neighbor. She was fined $10 which she paid from a huge roll of bills, and walked out of the court room saying she was satisfied. Mrs. Toker told the magistrate Armstrong called her a bad name.

CONVENTION AT A GLANCE

- 12:25 p. m.—Convention called to order by the temporary chairman, Alton B. Parker.
- 12:23 p. m.—Gov. Foss of Massachusetts introduced for a speech.
- 2:18 p. m.—Convention adjourned until 8 p. m. tonight.

CAN ROLL BRYAN BUT FEAR RESULT

Conservative Democrats Have Votes and Can Nominate Whom They Please but Dare Not

AFRAID COMMONER WILL BOLT

If They Force Stand-patter on Convention They Believe Progressives Will Leave

BALTIMORE, Md., June 26.—The nominee of the national democratic convention, like its temporary chairman, can be dictated by the Tammany-Murphy-Roger Sullivan-Tom Taggart combination. There is no doubt that they have the votes. That they will attempt to put over any man of their own, however, seemed doubtful today. They counted noses and decided it was best to let the fight for the nomination continue to a finish. They have discovered that the progressive sentiment is all powerful, and that even though delegates are prepared to do their bidding, they demand that they desert the ultra-conservatives and give them a chance to keep square at home.

Yesterday's defeat of Bryan in the convention was the culmination of one of the most carefully worked out campaigns ever conceived. For hours before the convention assembled yesterday, Murphy, working through the great powerful financial interests he represents, and with two of the Belmonts sitting in the New York state delegation, was lining up his men. Sullivan and Taggart were doing the same thing. The result was that when Bryan appeared for his fight he was already beaten.

Afraid to Force Hand

But knowing that they had the votes and that if they applied the pressure they could put across any candidate they desired, the conservatives halted today. They have about directed that so far as the remainder of this convention's work is concerned, the delegates may decide for themselves. They say that they have eliminated Bryan as a presidential possibility. Bryan has insisted all along that he was not a candidate and that he wanted to sit on one side and watch the proceedings and take as insignificant a part in them as possible. Up to the present he has refused to choose publicly between Champ Clark and Woodrow Wilson. Today there is no doubt that he prefers Wilson. The Wilson men assert that he knows positively that the Clark leaders traded with Murphy, and that they were promised support by him.

That the Clark men realize that to win they must get their majority early was shown when they today renewed their efforts to swing the uncommitted delegations into the camp of the Missouriian. They seemed confident of success, but the Wilson forces insisted that a careful poll proved that the speaker could never get enough votes.

Bryan will continue his fight for the progressive platform and the progressive candidate to the last. He is convinced, however, that the conservatives have an ironclad control and that his fight will of necessity be a losing one unless they decide it would be political suicide to attempt to combat the general sentiment for progressive principles and let the delegates do as they please.

There was also renewed talk today of the nomination for the head of the ticket of Kern. Bryan's running mate of four years ago. Bryan's ringing endorsement of Kern's progressiveness made in nominating him for temporary chairman has caused many of the leaders to wonder whether after all Kern would not be good presidential timber. And Kern's open effort to secure harmony in his personal appeal to Parker to withdraw in the interests of the party have not hurt his popularity among the men who championed Parker's cause.

Some Are Out Harmon, Underwood and Gaynor are now believed to have been eliminated from the race. Their managers kept them in the running today, but the enthusiasm in their headquarters noticeably subsided.

The forces controlling the convention have the votes to put these candidates over, but they realize that to do so would mean that Bryan and his followers would leave the convention.

U. S. MAY FIRE 30,000

TROOPS TO EL PASO

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Anticipating firing across the border as soon as the retreating Mexican rebels reached Juarez Gen. Wood today ordered a squadron of the Third Regiment of cavalry to proceed immediately to El Paso.

BRYAN WINS TWO FIGHTS FOR CONVENTION CONTROL IN BALTIMORE TODAY

SUMMER SCHOOLS OPEN ON JULY 1

Logan and Lincoln Schools to Be Used as Centers for the Present

TO BE SELF SUPPORTING

Students Have Chance to Make Up Back Studies or Win Promotion

The summer schools, notice of which was given in the various districts through the principals and teachers, will open their session Monday morning, July 1, for a term of six weeks. For the present two centers will be open, one on the north side, at the Logan school, and the other on the south side, at the Lincoln school. (Eighth and Division streets). There will be but one session a day, from 8 o'clock in the morning, until 12 at noon.

These schools are intended primarily for three classes of children: First, those who from absence or illness failed to be promoted; second, those who, weak in one or two studies, were promoted conditionally, or just failed of promotion, whose teachers think that the summer school work will put them firmly on their feet; third, unusually forward pupils whose teachers consider them capable of skipping a grade with the help of the summer school work.

The board of education voted to establish these schools only upon condition that they will be self supporting. Hence a small tuition of $5 for the six weeks will be charged.

This tuition must be paid the first day of school either to the teacher in charge or at the office of the superintendent of schools, L. P. Benet, in the high school building. There is nothing to prevent any child who pays the tuition from attending the summer school, provided he obtains the sanction of his teacher or principal. Four of the principals are here in the city. The addresses of the two who are away are: W. C. Greenwalt, Allenville, Wis.; H. G. Hayden, 732 33rd street, Milwaukee, Wis. The teachers will be chosen from among the best of the corps.

Pupils from other schools than the public schools of this city who desire to attend the summer school must first see the superintendent at his office in the high school building. Office hours, 10 to 12 a. m.

The work in a measure will be like that of the ungraded rooms. Especial stress will be put upon the subject in which the pupil is reported to be weak.

"Remember that it is not guaranteed because the pupil attends the summer school that he will secure the promotion which he wishes," said Superintendent Benet today.

"We have tried to safeguard this matter by admitting only upon the recommendation of the teacher or principal, but in the end the result will be determined by the pupil's own effort."

Should there be sufficient attendance to justify it, the one center on the south side will be divided into two, located at the Washburn and Hamilton schools respectively. However, for the first few days at least the session will be held at the old Third ward building. Books and supplies will be furnished free.

WIRELESS WEATHER SERVICE

WASHINGTON, June 26.—A cablegram from a United States delegate to the international radio telegraph conference in London, received today says the conference has approved his plan for a wireless ocean weather service. It provides for co-operation between ships at sea, and the Washington and London and Paris weather bureaus in giving storm warning to vessels on the ocean.

EXPLAINS NEW PARTY.

CHICAGO, June 26.—Medill McCormick was host today at a luncheon at the University club, at which progressive editors who are here to attend the 27th annual convention of the National Press association, were guests. McCormick explained to them the working plans of the new progressive party which is planning to enter the field in the presidential race and in state elections this fall.

FORMER SENATOR DIES.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 26.—Former United States Senator Anthony Higgins, a prominent lawyer of this city, died this morning at the home of his brother, Thomas Higgins, 27 Washington square, New York, whom he was visiting.

KERN BECOMES CHAIRMAN OF PLATFORM BODY

Bryan's Close Ally Takes Post Refused by Commoner, Who Wants to Be Free for Fight

PLATFORM AFTER NOMINEE

Candidate of Any Conviction Will Have to Run On a Platform of Progressive Ideas

ADJOURN UNTIL EVENING

Awaiting Reports of Credentials Committee, Body Ceases Business Until Contests Are Settled

FIFTH REGIMENT ARMY, Baltimore, June 26.—Refusing to subside even after yesterday's defeat the progressives in the democratic national convention today engaged in a desperate effort to reverse yesterday's setback and succeeded in regaining sufficient of their lost ground to again keep their hopes soaring.

The first victory was in reversing the program of the conservative steering committee which intended to continue the temporary organization and make Judge Parker, the permanent chairman. Instead the progressives forced the selection of Ollie James of Kentucky, by the committee permanent chairman. Although instructed for Champ Clark in the presidential fight, James is a progressive, and one of Bryan's closest friends. His keynote speech is expected to be strongly tinged with progressivism.

Bryan Refuses

Bryan repudiated the Murphy-Taggart-Sullivan attempt to mollify him, and refused election as chairman of the resolutions committee. He also made it plain that unless an out and out progressive platform is adopted, he will return a minority report, and carry the fight back to the floor, even to the voters of the country, if forced to.

Bryan forced an unprecedented step by having the resolutions committee demand, by a vote of 41 to 11, that the platform be not adopted until the candidates are named. The effect of this will be that even though a conservative should get the nomination he will have to run on a radical declaration of principle.

In place of Bryan, John A. Kern of Indiana, the Commoner's closest friend was made chairman of the resolutions committee. Because the credentials committee was not ready to report the temporary roll the convention "marked time" listening to fervid oratory by party leaders, and the real business will not begin until 8 o'clock tonight.

The democratic national convention was slow in assembling for the second day's session. Because of the fact that the committees did not get down to business until today it was certain that there would be no business ready for the assembling of the convention. For this reason the delegates preferred remaining about the hotels to sitting in the big convention hall, which, with a blazing sun beating down on the steel roof was as hot as a bake oven.

Nothing Before Night

The chairman of the committee on credentials sent word to Judge Parker that his committee could not possibly get through before night.

"The issues involved in the contests are such," reported Bell, "that we must make a complete investigation before deciding who are the legal delegates to this convention."

Parker sent a messenger to get Murphy, Taggart or some other member of the steering committee on the telephone, and ask instructions. It was certain that a recess would be ordered.

Many of the leaders were greatly concerned over the success of Bryan in lining up the committee on resolutions to report the platform after, and not before the nominations. This revolutionary doctrine was designed, it was freely admitted, to make the candidate run on the platform rather than to have the platform used to boom any particular candidacy. The vote on the question resulted 46 to 11 favoring the Commoner.

Bryan in a lengthy speech in the committee room, outlined his plan to name the candidates first and then adopt a platform. He was strongly supported by Senator Rayner, but the

WILL BE BIG GUNS AT DEM. CONVENTION

Governor Marshall and Senator Luke Lee.

Two big guns at the Democratic national convention will be Governor Marshall, of Indiana, and Senator Luke Lee, of Tennessee. Gov. Marshall is a candidate for the presidency, and Indiana's 30 delegates are pledged for him. He may prove a dark horse. If he doesn't, the question arises, who will get the Indiana delegation? It is claimed by both Clark and Wilson.

PARKER SCORES G. O. P. AND T. R.

He Denounces Roosevelt's Third Term Ambition in Fiery Keynote Speech

TRUSTS AND TARIFF SUBJECT Declares the Republicans Should Be Taken From Power Because of Mis-government

BALTIMORE, June 27.—In his "keynote" speech as chairman of the convention, Judge Parker said: "We meet while the bills yet echo to wild cries of liar, thief and traitor, and furious walls of fraud, bribery, treachery and corruption; and our ears are weary with the din of the articulate shrieking and passionate vilification of the most shameful brawl of our political history."

"Our candidates, however, are, without exception, men of such lofty men that we meet immune from the distemper which seized the Chicago convention and privileged to discharge a solemn public duty calmly, deliberately, seriously."

"The cause of government by the people the world over has been materially checked by the disgraceful brawl which terminated in the Bedlam of Chicago. Every good citizen has been put to shame by the brutality and the abuse, which characterized this wrangle between a president and its ex-president. Gratitude, friendship, party loyalty, patriotism and common decency were forgotten in the tumult."

"The assault upon the unwritten prohibition against a third term made in the wild scramble for the republican nomination warns us of the vital necessity of incorporating in our constitution a safeguard against repeated terms."

Attacks T. R. "In the very beginning of our constitution making it was urged by delegates participating that safety required a constitutional limitation of the period of years one man might hold the office of president. History warned them of the coming of a man whose insatiable lust for power would be as consuming as Caesar's, towering high above his country. The danger seemed, even to the pessimists, to have passed with the establishment of a precedent by Washington, Jefferson, and their successors. Indeed, where lives the man who has not either heard, or said, that an unwritten law forbids more than two terms and if anyone could be so foolhardy as to seek further he would be crushed by the wrath of a patriotic, and intelligent people."

"The man who met deserved defeat at Chicago once recognized the third term tradition and acknowledged its application to his situation. On the eve of his triumph in nineteen hundred and four he said: 'The wise custom, which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstance will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.'

"Wrong in this year of grace, he was right in that. Peradventure he was honest with his soul, and he may have confessed to it that even a president may be tempted to resort to sordid devices and shameless importunities to gain his ambition. If so he was in mental condition to realize to the full the danger to the republic involved in setting aside a custom constituting the only bulwark against the assaults of men whose ambition chokes their patriotism, and whose selfish desire for victory and power throttles those moral scruples with which they may once have been ordered."

"Would the man who threw his hat in the ring and sought to slug his opponent over the rest satisfied fight for a third term rest satisfied with his achievement? Clearly his lust of power would have brooked no such limitations. A third term would but have whetted his desire for more and as the terms slipped away each renewal would discover greater injury to our constitution to the form of government established under it, and to every legal curb on his imperious will."

Tradition Not Enough. "Unquestionably we have been wrong in assuming that a tradition against a third term constitutes a safeguard against unscrupulous ambition for unlimited power. We need a definite constitutional amendment which shall prevent socialistic souls from forcing personal constitution in office for long periods or for life and the personal selection of a successor in office. And the constitutional provisions should go one step further than our recently assailed tradition. The provision should limit to a single term."

"In this great country which boasts of a wealth of one hundred and thirty billion as against eight billion for Great Britain and Ireland, sixty-five billion for France, and sixty billion for Germany, all are conscious that too large a part of our wealth has been secured by a small percentage of our population, and that the cost of living rises faster than the average income."

Deals With Tariff.

"The principle cause of all this is to be found in the tariff statutes and in the combinations restraining trade and competition, created for the purpose of wringing from the public every dollar which the tariff statutes make possible. The average of duties under the tariff of 1789 was eight and one-half per cent. Now the average is fifty per cent. Protected interests benefited by two increases during the war, the first to an average of 37 per cent; the second to forty-seven per cent. That high average, then, excused only by the exigencies of the war, is exceeded now, as the average is nearly 50 per cent. The republican party has thus geared the machinery of government to enrich the few at the expense of the many. That increase of thirty per cent in the average has taken thousands of millions from the general public and devoted it to the creation of swollen fortunes."

Payne Tariff "An awakening of the people led the republican national convention of 1904 by its platform to promise a revision. Congress passed, and the president signed the Payne-Aldrich bill."

"One outcome of this breach of faith was a democratic house, which has acted so wisely and courageously as to arouse the enthusiasm of the people and inspire the democratic party with justifiable hope of early opportunity to render a public service sorely needed. For the bill that flow from that tariff increase from an average of 20 per cent to fifty, the republican party is responsible. For the continuance of that rate against the efforts of a democratic congress, a republican president is to blame. The reason for the encouraging inactivity of the republican party is plain. The tariff beneficiaries were, and for many years had been contributors to campaign funds for the party, which in turn protected the special privileges enjoyed by the donors. But competition prevented in some instance the collection from the people of the full stipulation in the tariff. To secure it all, tempted the cupidity and stimulated the ingenuity of the beneficiaries. But one way could be found—a combination to put the price up to where the statutes let in foreign competition. The same party which shut out foreign competitors was found willing to permit the formation of combinations which effectively banished home competition."

"The common law on the subject and the Sherman act were treated by republican officials as repeated by implication. Need it be said that the protected interests for these larger privileges, made larger contributions?"

"We are indebted to the president for the evidence that his predecessor, having first enjoyed an interview with George W. Perkins, restrained his attorney general from bringing suit against the Harvester combination."

"Whatever of excuse may be offered, the ugly truth is that the republican national machine has received the money of the corporate and individual beneficiaries of the tariff and combinations, and in return has compelled us to keep high the tariff rates, and their attorney generals to extend their sheltering arms."

"In the light of all the testimony and of these admissions, I submit

GOPHER SOLDIERS ARE ON THE MARCH

CAMP EMERY, Stanton, Minn., June 26.—The hardest day's march of the First Field Artillery M. N. G. ended here last night without mishap. The men camped on a field beside a small river where horses are easily watered. Men and horses arrived covered with black dust, but not a man or horse suffered, though the roads were heavy.

More women would probably marry for money or a title if it wasn't for the kind of men that usually go along.

A Trio of Beauty Secrets That Made Valeska Suratt Famous

Graciously Revealed By Valeska Suratt, the World's Most Famous Self-Made Beauty

Wrinkles Will Surely Go, A Pearly Skin Will Surely Come, and the Form Will Take on a Glorious Contour of Unrivalled Beauty

SAY what you will, there are three things which are the very basis of beauty. Without these three you may as well make up your mind that all your efforts in other directions will almost surely fail.

Even these three things must be done in a certain manner and with certain treatments; otherwise, although you will be doing the right things, you will not be doing those things right. In other words, you will be "in the right church but the wrong pew."

The following three things constitute the very essence of my success. Then everything else in the line of beauty culture became marvellously easy. I had something to build up on. Every woman will have to do the same thing. Exercise won't do it. Dieting and sleeping won't do it. But you can do it in spite of late suppers, late hours and the emission of heavy, bothersome ex-piries.

This trio consists of first, complete eradication of wrinkles; second, making the skin free of spots, as soft as velvet, and with a bloom like the petals of a rose; third, the development of the form and the bust to beautiful lines of contour and luxurious fullness.

There are other things, of course, besides these three, but I mention them as absolutely basic, right at the start. Begin on these now. Follow the instructions which I give you below and I can assure you that you will marvel at the change in yourself when you look in the mirror in a few short weeks thereafter.

The treatment I give you is absolutely different from anything I have ever before heard of, and I have for a long time been importuned by my friends to reveal the secret to them. I did so to those whom I thought would follow my instructions, and invariably the result has been glorious—yes, beyond their expectations. The results upon myself were, I will say, truly marvelous. No other word will express it.

I want each one of you to begin today by using the following secret. By a liberal and faithful application of it you will soon find that all the creams you have been previously using store and it should not cost you more than fifty cents. This will last quite a while.

Apply this cream every morning with the tips of the fingers, after washing your face with very warm water and soap. Use very liberally around the eyes, on the forehead, on either side of the mouth, everywhere. After you have applied it take up the flesh in your fingers, pinch it and roll it for a few minutes until the cream disappears. Then apply your complexion powder. This will mean the end of wrinkles. This cream will not grow hair.

I want to give you now my secret for the development of the bust. Many women believe it can not be done. Well, it certainly cannot by the ordinary treatments in vogue. Some of these are electricity, vacuum instruments &c.—all to no purpose. If in a half pint of hot water you dissolve two ounces of ruetone and a half cup of sugar, all well mixed together, you will have one of the most surprising treatments you have ever used for this purpose. Of this, take 2 teaspoonfuls three or four times a day in a wine glass of water, after your meals. I have found this to be a peculiar tonic, giving astonishing results in a few weeks' time. The ruetone you can get at the drug store for one dollar.

It is, of course, entirely safe. If more knew of this secret there would be many more happy women in the world. It will not fail you. You will assist the development a great deal by massaging the bust with the eptol cream mentioned above.

HARRIETTE L.—No, washing the face with warm milk will not whiten the skin, as you see from your own experience. You cannot do better than use the zintone treatment I mention above. Your freckles will also quickly disappear.

DOUBLE POWER AT PLANT

New 500 Horse-power Engine to Be Installed in North Side Factory

Albert P. Funk, secretary and treasurer of the La Crosse Rubber Mills company, is now in Boston, where he is attending the big meeting of the National Association of credit men, which is now being held there, as a delegate elected by the Milwaukee association of which the local company is a member. The convention lasts three days and Mr. Funk writes that there are 16,000 members of the association, 1,600 of whom answered roll call. Mr. Funk left last week for the east, accompanied by other delegates who were elected by the Milwaukee association. The trip to Boston was made by way of Detroit to Canada, down the St. Lawrence to Montreal, then to Albany and then to Boston. Most of the prominent credit and business men of the country were present and fifty cities are represented.

The meetings are being held in Huntington hall, Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Mayor Fitzgerald welcomed the delegates for the city while other addresses of welcome were delivered by State Treasurer Elmer A. Stevens and President George C. Morton. Governor Foss and Bishop Lawrence were unable to be present at the meeting. Interesting talks were delivered by Frederick P. Fish, chairman of the state board of education, George H. Williams, William H. Munch and H. D. Eby of Toronto, Canada. With a reception and ball at the Hotel Somerset in the evening, the National Association of Credit Men closed the first day of its seventeenth annual convention.

Mr. Funk states that he expects to be back in La Crosse in about a week. While in Milwaukee he placed an order for a 500 horse power Vilter Corliass engine for the Rubber Mills and it will be installed at the plant by September 1. The addition of this engine to the power plant at the Rubber Mills means that the power there will be more than doubled.

PLAN BUILDINGS FOR CELEBRATION

Bandstand and Pavilion to Be Built for Fourth of July on the North Side

A large bandstand and pavilion are to be built at Copeland park for the Fourth of July celebration to be held there and work on the construction of these structures will be begun within a short time. Alderman Otto Granke will build the pavilion and bandstand and he promises that the buildings will be good ones. The pavilion will be a large structure with a good floor which will be suitable for dancing while the bandstand will also be a good one to accommodate the bands which are to furnish the music during the day.

Another feature has been added to the day's program as a boat race between Bob Henry and Mr. C. H. Blanchard has been scheduled. These men have launches which are among the fastest in this vicinity and the race will undoubtedly be one which will attract much attention. The race will take place on Black river right at the park and will be held some time during the afternoon.

It is said that delegations from many of the nearby towns are planning to come to La Crosse on July 4 to be present at the celebration and for this reason the railroads are contemplating running excursions on that day.

YEHLE'S COLTS GRAB A CLOSE VICTORY

Yehle's Colts and Granke's Favorites clashed in a hot baseball game at Copeland Park last evening and when the smoke of battle had cleared away it was found that Alois Yehle's aggregation was the victor by the score of 2 to 1. Manager Yehle was confident that his team was easily superior to his opponents but he declared today that Granke's bunch gave his men the battle of their life. Rip Zoeller's home run brought in the only score for the opponents of Yehle's team but the Colts didn't win out until the last half of the ninth when they started a rally in true Philadelphia Athletic fashion and before they could be stopped, the winning run was over the plate.

BACK TO SWEET SIXTEEN

Ladies Will Find The Following Experience of Mrs. Blair Full of Interest

Pollock, La.—"For months," says Mrs. T. S. Blair, of this place, "my health was very bad on account of womanly troubles. The doctor's medicine did me no good.

I was very weak and nervous, and, some days, I could not be up.

I asked my husband to get me a bottle of Cardui to try, and before I had taken one bottle I was up and doing my work. Before I commenced to take Cardui, I had such spells I was not able to do anything. Now, I have taken only 3 bottles of Cardui in all, and I feel fine.

A few months ago, I weighed 135 pounds. Now I weigh 158, and I do all my own work—cook, wash and milk—and feel like I did when I was 'sweet sixteen'. Taking Cardui has cured me."

If every sick and ailing woman would only take Cardui, the woman's tonic, as Mrs. Blair did, womanly troubles would not be so wide-spread as they are now, for the curative value of this well-known remedy, in all such cases, has been proven by its more than 50 years of genuine success.

If you are a woman, try Cardui. You will appreciate its tonic, building effect on the womanly constitution.

WISCONSIN NEWS

VETERANS GIVEN BLUE ENVELOPE

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 26.—Supt. Oscar Kleinstueber of the fire and police alarm system has placed the ban on aged men in his department, holding that sentiment comes high when paid for by the city, in dollars and cents.

On Thursday Mr. Kleinstueber discovered that it is costing his department 1 1/2 cents more a foot to lay conduits this year than last year. Investigation proved that most of the men engaged in the work were beyond the age of their greatest usefulness. As a result twelve of the men, all leaders, were discharged and younger men employed to take their places.

Tuesday morning the discharged men called on Mayor Bading in a body, demanding reinstatement. The mayor supported Mr. Kleinstueber and explained that to operate at the greatest economy the city must follow the policy of a business concern in securing workers that would insure the greatest amount of efficiency for the salaries paid.

HOUSTON COUNTY TO HAVE FAIR

Houston county is again to attempt a fair. The fair association, with Mrs. C. J. Wheaton as president, has for the past five months been struggling with farmers, school boards and commercial clubs to consolidate with them and hold an industrial contest and agricultural meeting in the fall. For the past four months pupils of the rural schools have encouraged the thing by selling membership tickets at one dollar apiece to the people in their communities. Up to date there are about fifty-five members in the organization.

Mr. Geo. F. Howard of the extension department suggested the plan of having a county fair, and he started work last fall while conducting a farmers' week at Caledonia to form an organization.

At a meeting of the Caledonia Commercial club recently the members decided to appropriate $200 toward premiums and to take charge of the amusement side of the fair.

The poultry and grain exhibits will be held in the new city hall's basement, and the sewing and cooking entries of the girls will be placed on display in the new library.

Fifty-four double stalls have been rented from Dr. Whitbeck in which to place the stock and the judging of the animals will most likely be held there also.

With a large premium list, with divisions for boys and girls as well as for men and women, well under management, the officers of the Fair association expect to have a fair which will outclass any of those which Houston county has ever held before.

LOCAL BRANCH PROSPERS

Plans Made for Campaign at Meeting; Noted
Speakers Pilled
for This City

Miss Foia La Follette is expected to give an address in this city soon under the auspices of the La Crosse branch of the State Political Equality League. Miss Alice B. Curtis of Milwaukee is spending the week in the city as one of the five state organizers sent out by the state organization and at the meeting of the local branch held Monday at the home of Mrs. Olaf Skaar, Sixteenth and King streets, plans were made for the entertainment of Miss La Follette. Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch of Evanston, who with her husband and four children are making an auto tour of the state proclaiming the equality doctrine, is also scheduled to speak here.

Mrs. McCulloch is a well known lawyer of Evanston and is also a justice of the peace in that city. Her itinerary for this section is as follows: Onalaska, Wednesday, July 17, 5 p. m.; La Crosse, July 17, 8 p. m.; Bangor, Thursday, July 18, 10 a. m.; Sparta, Thursday, July 18, 2 p. m.; Cashiot, July 18, 5:30 p. m.; Viroqua, July 18, 7:30 p. m.; Reedsburg, July 19, 10 a. m.; Soldiers Grove, July 19, 10 a. m.; Wausau, July 19, 10 a. m.; Chien, July 19. Miss Curtis reported the local society to be in a very flourishing condition and said that equal suffrage in this section is meeting with encouraging results. She addressed the Ladies' Circle of the Universalist church yesterday on "Practical Results of Equal Suffrage." Saturday Miss Curtis will leave for Neillsville where she will endeavor to organize a league in Clark county. At present the State Political Equality League has its main headquarters at Milwaukee with branches at Green Bay and Oshkosh. Miss Anne Paul, who has been for some time in Boston, will return to La Crosse about the middle of August and will work in this vicinity two months in the interests of the league. She had been associated with the prominent suffragists of the eastern part of the country and is coming west to lend her enthusiasm to the work.

BRYAN'S SCHEME IS RECOMMENDED

Rules Committee Favors
Adoption of Platform
After the Nomination

BALTIMORE, June 26.—The rules committee of the democratic national committee by a vote of 21 to 16 agreed to recommend to the convention at its session that the requests of the resolutions committee to have consideration and adoption of the platform follow instead of preceding the nomination of the national ticket be carried out. This was a distinct victory for the progressives as the plan was a Bryan one. It was considered absolutely certain that the recommendation of the committee will be adopted without a fight.

The Harmon forces won a decided victory in the rules committee when that body by a vote of 22 to 15 directed that the unit rule instructing the Ohio delegation to vote for Harmon should be enforced.

NEW YORK PLATFORM

EMPIRE STATE DELEGATES SUBMIT DRAFT OF PRINCIPLES
O. K'D BY BOSS MURPHY OF TAMMANY

BALTIMORE, Md., June 26.—Following a caucus of the New York delegation, a draft of platform which has received the sanction of Charles F. Murphy, of Tammany hall, was ordered sent to the resolutions committee of the national convention. Senator O'Gorman, the New York representative on that committee was asked to have the national platform conform as much as possible with the New York declaration.

The New York draft declared for tariff reform, insisting that material reductions should immediately be made upon the necessities of life and asked that the downward revision be gradual, so that it will not injure, or destroy any "lawful or legitimate industry."

The platform declares for state's rights in every way. Rigid enforcement of the anti-trust laws, and a restoration of the competition throughout the country is pledged. "We insist that the anti-trust laws," says the plank, "should be enforced on both the civil and criminal sides." Central bank systems are unequivocally denounced and the party pledged to a "democratic revision of our worn out banking laws, which would create a flexible banking system and prevent any small group of financiers or politicians from controlling the banks of the country."

The income tax, and popular election of United States senators are specifically endorsed.

TWO ACCUSED OF STEALING COATS

Richard Robinson and Joseph Kerns were arrested late yesterday afternoon charged with attempting to steal three coats from the clothing store of Reuter & Mader, 125 South Fourth street. Robinson is alleged to have grabbed three coats and to have dashed from the store but Kerns was detained and the police notified. Robinson was later arrested. Three pairs of trousers were found in the possession of the men when they reached the police station. It was learned today that they had come from the clothing department of the Doerflinger Park store. The men will be held for trial.

Expensive Soda Water.

The highest price ever paid for a bottle of soda water was given in London recently when one that was a relic from the wreck of the Royal George was auctioned off and brought $134. The Royal George went down in 1782, which made the soda water 120 years old. Two-thirds of the liquid remained in the bottle, the inside of which was discolored and thickly incrustured with sea salt. The bottle was of the same shape as those used for aerated water at the present time, but the glass was of a deeper green and slightly heavier. Soda water was invented in 1767, and the relic was bought by a soda water manufacturer for advertising purposes.

No Lady Killer.

M. Durand de Belleford de Gournay, who a few months ago startled the simple folk of Coutances by appearing in a brilliant uniform covered with decorations and managed to swindle the local tradespeople of hundreds of pounds, cut a sorry figure when he appeared for trial at the assize court today.

His only defence is that he swindled because he wished to create an impression on a woman with whom he was in love. The judge replied: "Don't talk to me of making an impression on the fair sex. You are far too ugly," and then sentenced him to six years imprisonment.—Paris correspondence London Daily Mail.

KERN BECOMES CHAIRMAN OF PLATFORM BODY

scheme was opposed by Committeeman Clark of Arkansas. "This plan will insure a progressive platform and campaign regardless of the nominee," explained Senator Rayner. Of course, such a plan must have the consent of the convention, as it will have to be approved by the rules committee.

A sub-committee of the resolutions committee reported the new plan to the rules committee for the formal report to the convention. It will be a new rule, or a change in the regular rules. If Bryan's friends do not control the rules committee, a minority report will be made to the convention.

It was three minutes after twelve, the meeting hour, before Chairman Parker arrived. Sporadic applause greeted his appearance on the rostrum. The hall was filled by that time, and delegates took the seat philosophically, waiting with their coats off. Some even shed their collars.

Mrs. May Arkwright Hutton of Spokane, one of two women delegates to the convention, announced that there was no hope of woman's suffrage being endorsed by the present convention.

Called to Order

It was 12:25 when Temporary Chairman Parker called the convention to order. Regular city police had been impressed to aid the incompetent convention officials and there was far less disorder in the hall, while all sides aided and the aisles were comparatively clear.

The opening invocation was delivered by Right Rev. John Gardiner Murray of Baltimore.

Ex-Gov. Blanchard of Louisiana, for the committee on resolutions asked that the business session be adjourned until 8 o'clock tonight.

The motion was carried, and former Gov. James B. Polk was introduced for the first speech.

Speakers Kill Time

Folk declared that Col. Roosevelt, "who did the most to elect Mr. Taft, now admits that he made a mistake in aiding to defeat Bryan. The former Missouri executives paid tribute to Col. Bryan as 'the greatest teacher in the history of the United States.'"

Senator Rayner of Maryland was then introduced. Rayner began by saying that there would be three parties in the field this fall.

"The motto of the republican party headed by Mr. Taft," he said, "is 'We shall re-act and retrograde.'"

"The motto of the new party soon to be formed is 'Thou shalt not steal.'"

"So there is only one motto for the democrats, and that is 'We shall progress.'"

With great eloquence, Rayner, one of the most polished orators in the United States, pleaded for progressive candidates, and a progressive platform.

"The people will tear the mask from those who robbed them," shouted Rayner, "and the thief will be revealed to the benefit of democracy."

At one juncture the next speaker, Henry D. Clayton of Alabama, touched off the first pyrotechnics of the convention. Winding up a summit of oratory he declared: "I do not know who the candidate of the convention will be."

Clayton was nearly swept off his feet by the immense response, "Underwood," "Clark," "Wilson," "Harmon," yelled the crowd in a blend of noise. Parker's efforts to still the cheers went unheeded. The delegates stood on their chairs, and good humoredly handed yells for their candidates against shouts for rivals across the aisle.

Lady MacKenzie, an Englishwoman who has done a great deal for the education of the women of India, says that a few years ago the question of woman suffrage was regarded in India as a mere theory, but now it has become a living thought among the women there, and suffrage clubs are constantly increasing in size and importance.

SULL VAN MEN ARE GIVEN SEATS

Democratic Credentials
Committee Finds in Favor of Illinois Boss
in Contest

FIFTH REGIMENT ARMY. Baltimore, June 26.—The credentials committee of the democratic national committee on meeting this morning elected Joseph Bell of Indiana, chairman, and Frank J. Donahoe of Massachusetts, secretary. Bell is first lieutenant to Tom Taggart in Indiana democratic politics.

The committee has contests from nine states to consider—eight delegates at large in Illinois and representatives from the Seventeenth and Twentieth districts; two in the Ninth Missouri district; two in the Seventh Texas; the entire Rhode Island, Alaska, District of Columbia and Philippine delegations, and two contests in Pennsylvania.

By a vote of 40 to 10, the credentials committee of the democratic national committee seated the 20 Sullivan delegates from the congressional districts comprising Cook county, Illinois. It is certain that the Sullivan delegates from the state at large will also be seated.

The followers of Carter H. Harrison and William R. Hearst declared that as the action of the committee that they would not submit to the decision, and would carry the fight to the floor of the convention when it assembles tonight. By a vote of 38 to 13, the committee half an hour later stated the Sullivan delegates in the Seventeenth and Twentieth districts. Only one seat was contested in the Seventeenth and two in the Twentieth.

LEHMAN RESIGNS; BULLITT FOR JOB?

WASHINGTON, June 26.—President Taft today accepted the resignation of Frederick W. Lehman, solicitor general of the United States. His relations with the president and attorney general were most pleasant, he added, but he desired to return to private practice in St. Louis, his home.

FOOD AND DRINK COMBINED

Bottled Soda Water is food and drink combined. It is wholesome food too; because it is made from pure cane sugar and true fruit flavors. Few people consume enough sugar. The fact that you and the children crave sweet indicates that you need sugar. Take it in its purest form—filtered syrup, true fruit flavors and pure water in our carbonated beverages.

AID TO DIGESTION
Carbon Dioxide with which soda water is carbonated or "charged" is in itself a valuable food as well as a mild, harmless stimulant. It stimulates digestion, not by irritating the lining of the stomach, but by the mechanical action or "tickling" of the little bubbles, and it aids digestion also by neutralizing any acidity or sourness of the stomach.

NOT THE OLD POP
In former times when bottled soda water was called "pop," it was a very different beverage from what it is today, because most of the old time flavors were chemical rather than vegetable.

Bottled Soda Water of today as we make it is wholesome, harmless, beneficial and delicious. In its preparation, first consideration is given to purity of water, syrup, gas and flavors, and the scrupulous cleanliness of bottles and surroundings.

MOST POPULAR FLAVORS
The most popular flavors are Ginger Ale, Root Beer, Lemon, Strawberry, Pineapple and Chocolate Sodas. For city delivery comes in cases of two dozen splits or half pints. These goods may cost you ten cents per case of two dozen bottles more than the ordinary goods made from chemicals and in the old way, but you will not think of the small difference in price when you have tried them.

Have a case of our goods in your house at all times. You will find them most popular with your friends and guests—a quick and sure way out of the problem of being caught with not a thing in the house.

Prompt delivery service. Will make any assortment you wish.

WINE ROOMS ARE TO BE REMOVED

Council Holds Up Licenses of Four Places Until Ordinance Has Been Complied with

LARSON GETS A LICENSE

Marvin Serves Notice that North Side Fight Will Be Taken to Court Again

The city council issued one hundred and fifty-two saloon licenses for the coming year, at a meeting held last night. Four of this number however are being withheld until the applicants have complied with instructions relative to the removal of partitions in compliance with the wine room ordinance. But one license was refused, and that was due to the applicant being without a location.

After much discussion during which several votes were taken, John J. Murphy was granted a license to operate at 117 South Third street and Bruno Brewer was refused a license for the same location. These men have been partners in the ownership of the Empire saloon but have decided to dissolve partnership. Both made application for license as individuals but as Mr. Murphy had procured a three-year lease on the building, he was given the preference over Brewer. The suggestion of Alderman Mahoney, that both be given a license for the same location and settle the dispute between themselves, received no support.

Larson Gets License

License was granted to Olaf Larson to conduct a saloon at 801 Rose street, although a court injunction has been issued restraining anybody from opening a saloon at that location. Mr. Larson procured a license for that location last year and the matter was brought before the circuit court on the grounds that it was a new location and that Mr. Larson did not have the right to conduct a saloon in a new location unless he had received the refusal of old locations. During the course of the trial it was found that he had received the refusal of a building in which he believed had been an old location but which had never been occupied by a saloon. The court held that the council had no right to issue such a license and this decision was confirmed by the Supreme court.

Since then Mr. Larson has received the refusal of an old location but the question arises as to whether the law is interpreted to mean that he must receive the refusal of one old location or of all the old locations in the city.

Marvin to Fight

Alderman George B. Marvin declared that plans have already been made to fight any attempt to install a saloon at that location and that the matter will again be brought before the court. A petition was presented, signed by residents of the Fifth ward vouching for the character of Mr. Larson.

Coal Shortage

Hard Coal to be scarce by first of year. Docks empty at present time.

There is going to be a shortage of hard coal this year. The movement of coal is slow by boat and the docks will not be able to stock as much coal as heretofore. Three months have passed and there is very little coal on the docks yet. Probably won't be any fresh coal until after the 15th. It will be to your interest to order your coal now. The price is the lowest this month. Our hard coal is all freshly mined coal of the best quality to be had, and we guarantee every ton just as represented. If it is not, we will remove it at no cost to you. Better think it over. Price advances July 1.

BALTIMORE FAILURE AS CONVENTION CITY

BALTIMORE, Md., June 26.—The delegates and visitors spent considerable of their time today criticising the national committee for having brought the convention to this city. Hotel accommodations are absolutely inadequate and the restaurants are unable to feed the hungry hordes on time. The people of the city have tried hard to make up by hospitality for the limitations of the city, but this does not affect the average delegate and visitor and he is loudly voicing his objection to the discomfiture.

A woman in Kansas excused her husband of leading a double life because she discovered that he was twice as mean as she thought him.

JAMES IS NAMED FOR CHAIRMAN

Organization Committee a Unit on Kentuckian as Candidate for Permanent Ruler

FIFTH REGIMENT ARMORY, Baltimore, Md., June 26.—Ollie James of Kentucky was today unanimously named for permanent chairman of the democratic national convention by the committee on permanent organization, after practically every state had endorsed him. Senator Culbertson of Texas; Senator Kern of Indiana; Martin J. Wade, of Iowa; and Gov. Burke, of North Dakota, who were placed in nomination, sent word they could not serve, and their names were withdrawn in favor of James.

Theodore Bell of California, who was then proposed, personally appeared before the committee and declined the office.

"What assurance have we that Mr. James will serve," demanded Delegate Altschul of Illinois.

"He's writing his speech right now," retorted J. E. Kehoe of Kentucky, who nominated James.

New York, Rhode Island and Connecticut then seconded James and he was unanimously chosen.

SUMMER STOCK CO.

MAJESTIC THEATER TO STAGE OBRECHT STOCK COMPANY BEGINNING COMING SUNDAY

Starting Sunday matinee, June 30, the Obrecht Stock company comes to the Majestic theater and will present new plays, comedy dramas and new music. Feature vaudeville and motion pictures will be seen between acts. The program will be changed every Sunday matinee and Thursday evening. The company consists of 14 people and the Obrecht Sisters' Concert band and orchestra. The Obrecht Sisters are very well known in La Crosse, it being their home.

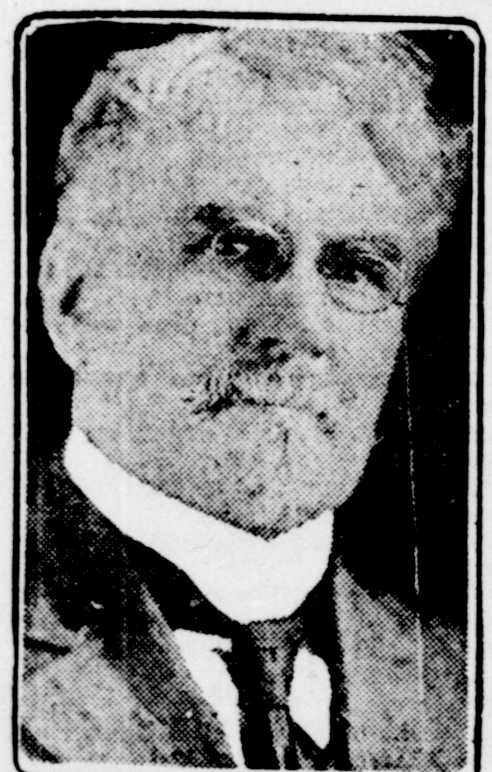

The opening play upon Sunday matinee is "My Jack," a rural comedy in four acts. A free band concert will be given at the Majestic every night at 7:30. The Obrecht Sisters' orchestra will entertain at 8:15 and the curtain will rise at 8:30. Following is a clipping from a Rochester, Minn., paper: "The Obrecht Stock company closed a successful week's engagement at the Opera house last night to a crowded house, and no company ever left our city with a better reputation than they. Their plays are new, clean, up to date, properly dressed, and well presented. The vaudeville between acts is up to the minute and the best ever seen here. Of the music part by the Obrecht Sisters' Concert band, too much cannot be said in praise."

Cures

Skin Diseases

Nature has made ample provision in the sunshine and moisture of the air for the outward life and protection of the skin, but the more important work of nourishing the cuticle has been left to an inward source—the blood. It is from the circulation that the pores and glands receive their support, and the fibrous tissues are all preserved in a healthful state because of constant nourishment supplied by the blood.

So long as the blood is pure and rich the skin will be free from eruptions or disease, but when the circulation becomes infected with acids and humors its nourishing and healthful properties are greatly diminished, and this acrid, humor-laden condition causes irritation and inflammation of the delicate tissues and fibres. Then the effect is shown in Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, or some other distressing, disfiguring skin disease.

Humors and impurities get into the blood through a deranged or inactive condition of the system. Those members whose duty it is to collect and expel the refuse matter of the system fail to properly do their work, and this surplus or waste matter is left in the system to sour and be absorbed into the blood.

The cause of all skin diseases can be traced to some humor or acid in the blood. Smooth, healthy skins are only possible where the circulation is pure; and therefore the cure of any skin affection can only come from a thorough cleansing of this vital fluid. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., are available only for their ability to keep the skin clean, allay superficial irritation, or soften the hardened cuticle. Such treatment cannot cure because it does not reach the blood where the cause is located, and to depend upon such measures alone usually results in the aggravation and spreading of any skin trouble.

S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases of every kind by neutralizing the acids and removing all humors or other impurities from the blood. S. S. S. cools the acid-heated circulation, builds it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies its rich, nutritious corpuscles, and adds to its purity and nourishing qualities in every way. Then the skin instead of being irritated and inflamed by acids and fiery humors, is nourished, soothed and made perfect by a plentiful supply of rich, pure blood. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers and therein lies its ability to cure skin troubles. It cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, pimples, boils, rashes and all eruptions of the cuticle. These troubles cannot remain when the cause has been removed, and S. S. S. will certainly remove the cause by purifying the blood. Book on Skin Diseases and medical advice free.

BALTIMORE SIDELIGHTS

BALTIMORE, June 25.—This was the banner business day for the stores that rent evening clothes. Mayor Preston tonight gives a reception from 8 to 11. Two thousand guests have been invited. Among the out of town women who will assist Mrs. Preston in receiving are Mrs. William Jennings Bryn, Mrs. Perry Belmont, Mrs. Roger Sullivan, Mrs. Thomas Taggart and Mrs. William R. Hearst.

Most alarming of the campaign decorations is a sanguinary looking map conspicuously displayed in the interest of Champ Clark. States colored red are for Clark, dark indicates Wilson, and red and white stripes show states favorable to Underwood. Clark's dominion is shown in a vast crimson empire including all states west of the Mississippi, except Texas, Minnesota, Oregon and North Dakota, and twelve states east of the great river. The margin is adorned in glaring outlines of our insular possessions and the sign below says: "Let's Make it All Red."

A call for "Mr. Crane" was the belated summons of a bell boy "paging" a guest at the Belvidere hotel. "He died at Chicago," yelled a lobby lounge, provoking a roar of laughter by evident reference to Senator Murray Crane of Massachusetts.

Jerome A. Parker of Phoenixville, Pa., was visiting Bryan and found the Nebraskan's black felt hat on the dresser. He tried on the hat, which fell over his eyes and ears. "He has a fine war bonnet—a man's size," Hartman remarked.

The wife of former Senator Fred T. Dubois of Idaho, one of Clark's managers, arrived suddenly at the Hotel Emerson and wanted very much to see her husband. She was told that he was in an important conference on the fifteenth floor and could not be disturbed.

"But I am Mrs. Dubois," she told the clerk, and with that the secretary rapped rather apologetically on the door.

"That's no way to knock," exploded Mrs. Dubois, and she struck the panel a resounding whack with her parasol. "It's a pretty state of affairs when a woman has to knock on a door to see her own husband."

Leading a houn' dawg that looked "big as life" and twice as natural, Ed L. Shaw, one of the leaders of the Arizona delegation, stalked in the Clark quarters in the Emerson. An over energetic Missourian hurrying to put on somebody's hat, accidentally "kicked the dawg aroun' and out poured a basketful of sawdust."

"We don't want too much harmony," said David H. Smith of Hodgkinsonville, Ky., the birthplace of Lincoln. "A little fighting at the start will do us all good. Do you think for a moment that I would have come all the way up here from Kentucky if I had thought there was to be no scrap? Not much."

"Pretty good cigar; what's the name of it?" former Governor David R. Francis of Missouri, asked the tobacconist in the lobby of the Emerson.

"That's a Bolt Special," was the reply.

"Our Dave" thought it a joke until he looked at the band and then he threw the weed down in disgust. "Give me something else; that thing is loaded," said he.

In striking contrast to the far western delegates which sent two women delegates, Mrs. Herman Hubbard and Mrs. Cole of Columbus, are here to prevent, if possible, the adoption of a suffrage plank by the democrats. "Eighty-five per cent of the women of Ohio do not want to mix up in politics, but prefer to stay at home," Mrs. Hubbard declared. "Mrs. Cole and I will appear before the committee on resolutions to represent eighty-five per cent and to urge the committee not to include an equal suffrage plank in the platform."

While the "Peerless One" is stopping at the Belvidere hotel, the name of William J. Bryan, on the Stafford hotel register is causing a disappointed stampede of newspaper men and visitors. The Stafford's guest is a second William J. Bryan. He comes from Abilene, Texas, however, and is not related to the celebrated Nebraskan, but they have been friends for years.

"Everywhere I go, when I register at a hotel, all the reporters chase me," said the Texan.

Mayor Gaynor's friends see comfort in the fact that successful dark horse nominees of half a century has had whiskers—Hayes, Arthur and Garfield, for instance.

Representative Rothermelt's resemblance to Vice President Sherman is causing the Pennsylvanian all sorts of embarrassment. Rothermelt is a Quaker, and of a very retiring disposition so that it gets on his nerves to be followed around everywhere by a gaping crowd who think he is somebody that he isn't.

"This business of being patterned after Jim Sherman is an awful nuisance," he declared today.

Bartholomew G. Rogan of the Eighteenth ward, Chicago, is also present. He is the author, inventor and patentee of the well recognized principle of politics, viz: "The guy who does the work deserves the job," he also wears a bright silk hat, being the only democrat at the convention who is thus crowned.

Baltimore is a polite town. Men take off their hats here in the elevators of the office buildings. Ask a Baltimore man to direct you somewhere and he'll walk with you to the place.

On the way he'll tell you that—

The first national presidential convention was held here.

The first monument to Washington and the first monument to Columbus were built here.

The first American railroad company was formed here, and here the first locomotive was built.

The first steamship to cross the Atlantic sailed from here.

The first telegraph line was operated from here.

The first armor plate was made here.

The first electric street car was run here.

The first machine to set type was invented and built here.

The first submarine boat was built here.

Fewer people live in flats than in any other American city, and a fourth of the people own their own homes.

Lon Sanders of St. Louis, Joe Folk's campaign manager up to the Missouri ex-governor's withdrawal from the presidential handicap in favor of Champ Clark, was a late Baltimore visitor today and his presence, coupled with the fact that Folk has been seen in the Emerson lobbies since Sunday, has set tongues wagging in the Missouri delegation. Folk said he was on a lecture tour in Jersey and just dropped 'round to see the show and boost for the speaker. Sanders said he was over in New York on business and that when he decided to stop over in Baltimore he did not even know his onetime candidate was in the convention city. But the wise ones who profess to think that the convention so far is anybody's fight. Wonder if Folk does not take the same view of the situation, and that he and his manager are both here with a generous supply of lightning rods.

COUNTRESS SUICIDES

LONDON, June 26.—The coroner has decided that Baroness De Reinach-Werth, formerly Miss Diane Morgan Hill, Washington, D. C. society girl, who was married last December committed suicide on June 21 by jumping from the window of a nursing home where she had been suffering from hysteria.

The high school at Manatee, Fla., needed an industrial building, and as no funds were available for the purpose, the school children built it themselves. It is a one-story structure, built of concrete blocks, 25 feet by 50 feet. The blocks were made by the grammar-school pupils; the high school boys put up the walls and roof, and the girls nailed on the laths for the plastering. The school is called the Kendall Industrial Institute, in honor of the high school principal, who designed and supervised the work.

A tall, affable young man with elastic step, and florid complexion, is State Senator F. D. Roosevelt of New York, who is one of the leading boomers for Woodrow Wilson. It was Roosevelt who blocked William F. Sheehan and brought about the election of Senator O'Gorman a year or so ago.

That A. J. Daly, committeeman from Alaska was in his seat yesterday voting for Judge Parker was due to the fact that a brick was tumbled from the 15th story of a new building on 34th street near Broadway, New York, day before yesterday passed six inches northwest of his head instead of hitting him. The brick tore a strip of leather from the side of Daly's shoe.

Mrs. Daly, who was with her husband, was so frightened she was unable to leave her room for a day.

Mrs. Robert La Follette, wife of the Wisconsin senator; Miss Elizabeth Hitchcock, daughter of the Nebraska senator and Miss Belle Foster, daughter of the women's suffragists, will come over Sunday, and join the suffrage parade. Women from all over the country are here demanding that the democrats put a suffrage plank in their platform and the parade will be one of their lobbying features. Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey, dean of the Washington school of Law, will also be with the marchers, it was said today.

It was the report at the Belvidere last night that Senator Gore, the blind senator from Oklahoma, had been embraced and kissed by a very pretty woman in the lobby. It developed, however, that it was Mrs. Gore, who had come over from Washington to join him.

Scores of lithographs depicting Mayor W. J. Gaynor, attached to the marble walls of a principal hostelry, shows among other details a buttonhole in the lapel of his coat. Friends of New York's chief executive were greatly annoyed by the antics of followers of New Jersey who pinned a large "Vote for Wilson" in the lapels.

George Pickett is prosecuting attorney of Shelby county, Kentucky, the grandest county of the grandest state in the union, and he came breezing into the Emerson Hotel yesterday with a director's walking stick five feet high.

It is the only thing of the kind ever needed at a democratic convention and it created a profound sensation.

"I didn't think there was anything odd about it," said Pickett. "Lots of us carry 'em back home."

"The country is going to the dogs," rathfully announced Major R. P. O. Delaney of Missouri, "when a democrat can show up with a thing like that."

The Champ Clark men are in danger of losing the convention with that Houn' Dawg song. Elevator boys and chambermaids and newsboys and policemen and Champ Clarkers are warbling hours daily about the canine.

"If this keeps up I'm going home," wailed A. L. Austin of Chicago. "It's got my dawg—I mean my goat—"

A touching tale of how Judson Harmon once led an Akron crowd in singing "Blessed Be The Tie That Binds," is circulated about the lobbies in pamphlet form by Harmon managers. It says Harmon won his Akron fight by the episode and reproduces the song from Christian Hymnal "To Prove It" must refer to a railroad tie," commented a Bryanite.

A sort of round breastplate or stomacher, with a portrait of Champ Clark on it, is the latest monstrosity in campaign badges to appear in Baltimore. It is affixed to the coat with a stout cord and every Clark press agent in the lobbies had one on. For all but the paid press agents, however, the affair was found too-hot for wear in Maryland weather.

United States Senator Watson of West Virginia said yesterday afternoon that while West Virginia delegates are instructed for Clark, the majority of democrats in his state are for Wilson.

After the first ballot a lot of West Virginia votes will go to Wilson," he said. "Why a lot of us would rather vote for Roosevelt than for Harmon or any reactionary of that type."

J. H. Driscoll is a giant from Madison, Minn. He said he is here to await the Bryan stampede, and in the meantime Minnesota is standing for Wilson. Regarding New York, he said: "We don't need New York. In '76 Tammany was against Tilden, he was elected; in '84 and '98, it was against Cleveland, he was chosen both times. We don't really need New York."

It is Criminal to Neglect the Skin and Hair

THINK of the suffering Tentailed by neglected skin troubles—mental because of disfiguration, physical because of pain. Think of the pleasure of a clear skin, soft, white hands, and good hair. These blessings, so essential to happiness and even success in life, are often only a matter of a little thoughtful care in the selection of effective remedial agents. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment do so much for poor complexions, red, rough hands, and dry, thin and falling hair, and cost so little, that it is almost criminal not to use them.

Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a postal to "Cuticura," Dept. B, Boston, will secure a liberal sample of each, with 32-page booklet on Skin and Scalp Treatment.

WINONA, Minn., June 26.—Rallying in the eighth and ninth innings when they counted six of their runs, Winona beat Eau Claire in the second game of the series, 8 to 7, and the Pirates took the lead in the Minny league race. The game was an exciting one, Winona being beaten up to the eighth when they scored a trio of tallies and took the lead by one run only to have Eau Claire count three times in the ninth and force ahead by two tallies. The Pirates came back in the ninth and with two out they rallied fiercely, two hits, a pair of passes, a hit batsman and a wild pitch giving them three runs and the game.

AMERICAN AUTO RACERS DEBARRED

DIEPPE, France, June 26.—Geo. Boillot, a Frenchman, driving a Peugeot car, won the Grand Prix of the Automobile Club of France, today. Louis Wagner, driving a Fiat, was second.

Both Americans who started in the international automobile grand prix yesterday were declared out today. David Bruce Brown, who headed the field at the end of yesterday's ten laps, was disqualified in the fifth lap today because he filled his tank en route, instead of in front of the grand stand, as the rule requires. He voluntarily withdrew. DePalma violated the same rule and was likewise barred.

Brown had a big lead in the fourth lap, after which Boillot, who ran second yesterday, took the lead. A spare wheel from the Boillot Peugeot became detached and flew into the crowd along the course, seriously injuring a gendarme.

The roads are extremely heavy today, because of a steady downpour of rain. This fact, with the disqualification of Brown, who was making a great record, has robbed the big race of much of its interest.

START FOR SWEDEN

ANTWERP, June 26.—The American athletes are today on the last lap of their journey to Sweden. The steamer Finland, on which the athletes are quartered, sailed at noon for Stockholm. The Americans were given an enthusiastic send-off, the pier being crowded with local enthusiasts and resident Americans, cheer after cheer, and waving of flags marking the departure of the steamer.

Nap Rucker kept up his winning streak and pitched the Brooklynns into sixth place.

Big Ed Walsh received the surprise of his life when the despised tailenders flattened out his spit ball. Are the Pirates jealous of the Giants' hitting? Thirty-five hits in the doubleheader against the Cardinals gives that impression.

Seventeen straight for Rube Marquard.
